WHO WILL RUN FOR CONGRESS?

Speculation as to Probable Republican Candidate for Congress In The Tenth.

The Gazette-News talks this way: Republicans in Buncombe and other counties in the tenth congressional district, have about ended their quarrels—for the present, at least—and are now casting about for an available man to make the race for congress in this district. A number of well known republicans have been mentioned, but the most persistent name that is being discussed in connection with the republican nomination is that of Solicitor Mark W. Brown of Asheville. During the past few weeks the leaders of the party in this section of the state, have given the matter serious consideration, and the present solicitor of the fifteenth judicial district has come in for much favorable comment. It is a case of the office seeking the man, and not the man seeking the office, should the nomination be tendered Mr. Brown. He is not after the nomination. His friends, however, wish him to have it, and according to information received here Mr. Brown is being seriously considered as the most available man in the republican party in the district.

It is pointed out that he would be acceptable to both factions of the party in this district and that he would be a candidate upon which the whole party could unite. While it is known that Solicitor Brown's friends are at work in their efforts to secure for him the congressional nomination, it is believed that Mr. Brown would much prefer a renomination as solicitor for this judicial district. He has held this office for the past four years and has performed its duties with credit to himself and the state. He has dealt fairly with men irrespective of political affiliations, and has won the esteem and respect of democrats and republicans alike. Mr. Brown has succeeded in establishing a lucrative law practice in Asheville, and it is not believed that he would willingly give this up to enter the race for congress this year. Should he receive the republican nomination for congress, however, and enter the race for votes, he would give the democratic nominee a hard tussle for election. There is no concealing the fact that the republicans are hard put to it for an available candidate who will consent to make the congressional race in this district. It was thought some time ago that Richmond Pearson, minister to Persia, might be induced to return and make the race, but Mr. Pearson, it is understood, has positively declined to do so. Assistant District Attorney J. J. Britt, who was defeated for the nomination in 1904 by Judge Ewart, has also been mentioned, but he, too, as has also Mr. Benbow of Macon county, declined to run.

Talk About Hon. W. T. Crawford.

Writing to the Waynesville Courier Mr. W. B. Hall, of Canton, Haywood County, says: "We are all in favor of Hon. W. T. Crawford for congress. He is a safe man." And the editor comments thusly: "One of our correspondents in this issue says everybody in his section is for Crawford for congress. Of course there will be no division in Haywood county on Crawford."

FIRST, LAST AND ALL THE TIME.

"I see the names of several prominent men mentioned in connection with the congressional race, but none that we prefer to Hon. W. T. Crawford. Give us Crawford first, last and all the time.—F. M. Bryson, in Webster Journal.

MAY CARRY BUNCOMBE.

"His friends declare that W. T. Crawford will be the next nominee, and that his nomination spells election by a large majority. He is famous as a campaigner, and announces himself with a host of zealous supporters. He will without a doubt, carry the western counties, and it has even been predicted that Buncombe will enroll under his standard."—Asheville Correspondence News and Observer.

A Letter to W. J. Davis.

Dear Sir: We bid on a job, and some body else underbid us 5 cents a gallon—and got it. Devos is all paint; the other was adulterated 38 per cent. Three hundred gallons of it contains less paint than 200 of Devos. They saved $5 on each hundred gallons and lost $400 to $500 on each extra hundred gallons they had to use. The job was Hotel Chamberlain, Old Point Comfort, Va: big job as hotels go. It shows the wisdom or folly of buying price per gallon. Go by the name: Devos.

Yours truly
